

ADVEN PROGRAMMING TURE

MAYDAY! BERING SEA

1 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2009 / ID: 26077

In March 2008, the Alaska Ranger steamed out on a winter fishing mission. Just 120 miles into the Bering Sea in pitch darkness, the ship suddenly went down leaving 47 fishermen fighting for their lives. The Coast Guard rescue that unfolded over the next 14 hours would become the largest and most daring maritime rescue in U.S. history.

SNOWBLIND

1 x 120 / Discovery Channel / 2006 / ID: 25368

Rachael Scdoris, legally blind since birth, is racing in her third Iditarod, the grueling 1,100 mile dog sled race in Alaska. Follow her as she trains herself and her team of dogs for the epic ordeal of Iditarod 2008, fifteen days of ice, exhaustion, danger and exhilaration. Everything comes together as this amazing heroic young woman experiences the agony of trying to win the Last Race On Earth, against all odds.

MAN VS. WILD

Series 1-6: 73 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2010 / ID: 25268, 25689, 25797, 26004, 26143, 26272

Survival expert Bear Grylls is back and his exploits are as thrilling as ever, traveling from the Arizona deserts to the Borneo jungle and the frozen volcanos of Iceland. Watch Bear's harrowing struggles as he makes his way back to civilisation from some of the most remote locations on the planet.

INTO THE UNKNOWN WITH JOSH BERNSTEIN

8 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2007 / ID: 25627

Global traveller, explorer and educator Josh Bernstein has a voracious appetite for knowledge. From uncovering secret mummification rituals in the jungles of Papua New Guinea to exploring ancient wealth and wonder of Timbuktu, no location is too remote, no culture too exotic, no goal too ambitious. Travel with Josh across oceans, continents and time zones in a quest for answers.

WORST CASE SCENARIO

12 x 30 / Discovery Channel / 2009

Survival expert Bear Grylls puts himself in potentially lifethreatening situations to show hands-on, step-by-step instructions on everything you may need to know when faced with a worst case scenario. Bear teaches the skills needed to succeed in urban survival situations that could arise without warning, from escaping a sinking car to fending off a wild dog.

TATTOO HUNTER

10 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2007 / ID: 25470

With no tattoos, piercings or body markings of any kind, Lars Krutak journeys to remote and exotic places to investigate the rarest tattoos on Earth. He seeks to understand the motives of the people who put themselves through pain to have their skin transformed into striking canvases of color for traditional, cultural and spiritual reasons.

ALASKA: MOST EXTREME

1 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2008 / ID: 25978

Alaska is America's biggest state with the nation's highest mountains, most volcanoes, fiercest wildlife, biggest waves and cruellest winters. Watch the tough guys, the powerful machines and the awesome forces of nature that make Alaska raw, unbridled nature.

WHALE WARS

Series 1-5: 50 x 60 / Animal Planet / 2008-2012 / ID: 123890

Captain Paul Watson and the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society bring adrenaline-fueled action as they engage in an ongoing whale defence campaign in the Southern Ocean to stop Japanese ships from whaling in the name of research. Anticipating the battle of a lifetime, the Sea Shepherds once again are trolling the Antarctic with surprise tactics, intense strategy and unparalleled passion.

Program Sales and Home Video opportunities available worldwide for majority of titles listed. Confirm final rights with your sales representative. To view our full genre list, please visit:

www.THESTUDIOSGROUP.com

IN TOO DEEP

13 x 30 / Animal Planet / 2007 / ID: 122533

In this animal adventure series, host Jamie Crawford travels through the world's harshest climates and terrains in search of the most intriguing animal adaptations. In Too Deep focuses on a highly visual comparison between man and animal that highlights the brilliance of evolution's adaptations, demonstrated through the frailties of the human body.

SURVIVING ALASKA

1 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2007 / ID: 25758

Les Stroud travels to Alaska to face the deadliest cold weather scenarios, and puts his survival skills to the test in one of the most extreme and unforgiving places on the planet. Using a combination of wisdom from Inuit elders and the latest high-tech equipment, Les shows you how to survive avalanches, blizzards, icy waters and hungry polar bears – and make it out of the Alaskan wilderness alive.

OUT OF THE WILD: THE ALASKA EXPERIMENT

8 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2008 / ID: 25909

Nine ordinary Americans have volunteered to participate in a unique experiment. Stranded deep in the heart of Central Alaska, their goal is to make it back to civilization...alive. Left with only the bare essentials, they will travel 60 of the harshest miles on the planet while battling hunger, fatigue, and an unforgiving winter that will make surviving nearly impossible.

DISASTER ON K2

1 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2009 / ID: 25928

In 2008, an international team of climbers ascended K2 Mountain, the most challenging peak on the planet. In a catastrophic turn of events, seven climbers became trapped when ice walls collapsed. Through documentary footage and interviews with the few survivors, we follow this extraordinary tale of heroism, endurance and heartbreak.

ABALONE WARS

3 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2012 / ID: 137234

Plunge into the waters of the Southern Ocean and follow the men and women who risk their lives in one of the world's most dangerous professions – diving for green and black abalone. "Abalone Wars" takes you into this high-stakes game. For the brave few, millions of dollars' worth of abalone await. Apart from harsh weather and prowling sharks, the divers must race against the clock to secure their catch...and make it home alive.

ALASKA GOLD DIGGERS

6 x 60 / Animal Planet / 2012 / ID: 138152

With no tattoos, piercings or body markings of any kind, Lars Krutak journeys to remote and exotic places to investigate the rarest tattoos on Earth. He seeks to understand the motives of the people who put themselves through pain to have their skin transformed into striking canvases of color for traditional, cultural and spiritual reasons.

ALASKAN STEEL MEN

3 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2012 / ID: 140496

Alaska is America's biggest state with the nation's highest mountains, most volcanoes, fiercest wildlife, biggest waves and cruellest winters. Watch the tough guys, the powerful machines and the awesome forces of nature that make Alaska raw, unbridled nature.

WORLD'S DEADLIEST TOWNS

3 x 60 / Animal Planet / 2009 / ID: 130380

Animal trainer and behavior expert Dave Salmoni travels to the planet's most dangerous animal killing zones: places where people and animals are still locked in mortal conflict. Upon his arrival to each wild battleground, Dave sets out to find the story behind some of the world's deadliest attacks. What's causing them? Who's being affected? And how can we stop them?

Program Sales and Home Video opportunities available worldwide for majority of titles listed. Confirm final rights with your sales representative. To view our full genre list, please visit:

www.THESTUDIOSGROUP.com

EVEREST AVALANCHE TRAGEDY

1 x 90 / Discovery Channel / 2014 / ID: 144919

Everest Avalanche Tragedy features unprecedented access and eyewitness accounts from the rescue and recovery efforts that took place after the avalanche struck the Khumbu Icefall, the area just above Mt. Everest base camp, during the morning of Friday, April 18, killing 13 and leaving three missing. This program documents the weeks leading up to the climb through the moment the avalanche struck the Khumba Icefall, one of the most treacherous parts of the mountain, and its aftermath. Cameras rolled immediately following, as blocks of ice plummeted down the mountain, making it the deadliest single-day avalanche in history on Mt. Everest.

MY TRIP FROM HELL

1 x 60 / Destination America / 2013 / ID: 139785

This program tells the stories of vacations gone wrong. From drunk passengers being duck-taped to their seats, to getting stuck in an outhouse, to discovering a dead body inside your hotel bed, these travelers have found themselves on one very bad trip. We'll hear from the travelers themselves as they recount their trips.

WORLD'S TOUGHEST DRIVE

2 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2012 / ID: 70122

An international team of pioneering adventurers is attempting the world's most deadliest drive on the earth's most deadly terrain. They are attempting the world's fastest drive on Polar Ice to the South Pole, then driving back again. There are no support vehicles. They are doing it totally alone.

BEYOND SURVIVAL WITH LES STROUD

10 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2009 / ID: 26070

As Survivorman, Les Stroud spent years filming himself in the most remote locations on earth. This time around Les becomes the student as he travels to meet the world's last indigenous tribes to learn some of mankind's most time-tested survival techniques. Before the indigenous know-hows and rituals vanish forever, Stroud experiences their cultures and imparts some of the wisdom that has helped humans flourish in the wild for thousands of years.

DUAL SURVIVAL

Series 1-2: 22 x 60 / 2009-2010 / ID: 26172, 26299

Dave Canterbury and Cody Lundin are not your typical trained survival experts. Their methods are unorthodox and their goal is simple: find out what it takes to stay alive in real-life situations. In this returning season Canterbury and Lundin travel to some of the most extreme places on earth, from the scorching desert of Baja, Mexico all the way to the cloud forests of Panama. They use their limited resources and endless skills to survive, and teach us how to deal with real survival challenges.

FEARLESS PLANET

6 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2006 / ID: 25394

Journey through the earth's most awesome natural wonders as we take extreme filmmaking to a whole new level. Join world paragliding record holder and renowned extreme sportsman Will Gadd as he showcases the most amazing locations in the world – Alaska, the Sahara, Hawaii, the Great Barrier Reef and the Grand Canyon – to understand how these stunning formations were created. The series uses cutting-edge photo-real computer graphics to bring to life the geological processes that created these natural wonders.

Program Sales and Home Video opportunities available worldwide for majority of titles listed. Confirm final rights with your sales representative. To view our full genre list, please visit:

www.THESTUDIOSGROUP.com

GET OUT ALIVE

6 x 60 / Discovery Channel / 2009 / ID: 26189

Get Out Alive is a nerve-shredding series about ordinary people trapped in a hostile environment. These incredible true stories of escape and survival are told through high-octane drama and gripping eyewitness testimonies from real people who emerged from nightmare scenarios that few experience. Viewers are taken into some of the most hazardous and tense circumstances imaginable; including encounters with Somali pirates, Taliban kidnap squads, Iraqi Insurgents and South American narco-terrorists.

LIVING ON THE EDGE

2 x 30 / Animal Planet / 2013 / ID: 141612

All across the country, Americans are getting back in touch with the wild, walking away from modern-day conveniences and living on the edge. We meet three very different homeowners who've taken on the challenges of living off the grid by creating fantasy homes using ingenious solutions, to necessities like electricity, plumbing and heating. Whether it's using the sun to power their home or rainwater to take a shower, these modern-day pioneers have discovered ways of living off the land and getting by with less.

THE ANCIENT LIFE

6 x 60 / 2011 / ID: 133519

Join our host and adventurer, Brit Eaton, on his quest to unravel some of the biggest secrets of the ancient world. Brit's made his living exploring the abandoned mines and ghost towns of the Old West. Now, he's traveling the globe to investigate the greatest icons of antiquity and the mysteries that still surround them. Shot worldwide in six countries and on four continents, for the first time ever, experience what it's really like to stand before the Pyramid of Cheops or to walk through the haunted landscape of Pompeii.

WILD FRANK IN AFRICA

6 x 60 / Discovery MAX / 2014 / ID: 145977 / In Spanish only

On foot, by helicopter, boat, canoe, car, truck, donkey and by almost all means of transportation available, Herpetologist Frank Cuesta tours Namibia, Zambia, Botswana and Zimbabwe in search of the "Big Five": the leopard, lion, elephant, rhino and buffalo – animals that have been recorded many times from a distance, but rarely upclose. Along the way, Frank interacts with tribesmen, fishermen, European explorers and adventurers, and even risky encounters that jeopardize the entire expedition. Will Frank meet his goal?

WILD FRANK IN BRAZIL

4 x 60 / Discovery MAX / 2014 / ID: 144119 / In Spanish only

Host of the 2014 World Cup, Brazil has had a landmark year; however, the inhabitants of the Amazon rainforest in Brazil live outside the soccer fever. Herpetologist Frank Cuesta explores the Amazon to discover a completely unknown wilderness. His adventures include living with the Sateré Mawé and Dessanas tribes. Frank must learn to survive in an environment filled with dangerous animals and misleading vegetation. He will eat what they eat, sleep as they sleep, hunt and will fish the traditional way, and even be subjected to painful rituals. Series features host speaking in native language with English subtitles.

Program Sales and Home Video opportunities available worldwide for majority of titles listed. Confirm final rights with your sales representative. To view our full genre list, please visit:

www.THESTUDIOSGROUP.com

